

BOARD ADOPTS BUDGET

Board of Education members adopted a $2,756,453 budget following the final public hearing last Tuesday night.

The figure differed slightly from the original figure published a few weeks ago as a result of a correction made in the unsecured property taxes on estimated assessed evaluation. The former total budget figure was $2,759,408.

Robert I. Plomert, representative of the Torrance Industries Tax Committee, recommended that an excess-sum made available due to an increase in a state board rule this week be used to lower taxes rather than be added to the undistributed reserve fund.

The Board turned down the recommendation. They stated that the additional money would not be spent necessarily and that their reserve fund amounts to $150,000 and the undistributed reserve totals $21,262, the latter being less than 1% of the total budget.

Plomert commended the board for the wisdom and ability it has shown in its handling of the school affairs during the past and assured them of industry's support in any justified school expansion program.

Cigarettes Disappear

Thirty-six cartons of cigarettes amounting to $70 in value were stolen last Sunday from the Greater Torrance Market, 2155 Torrance Blvd.

No arrests have been made so far.

Violations To Cease

Hog ranchers and dairy ranchers assured a committee of the Planning Commission last week that they will do everything within their power to operate their ranches on a sanitary basis and that they want to remedy any violations as soon as they are informed of them.

Thirteen dairies and four hog ranches were represented at the meeting.

The McLean and Foley hog ranches were singled out by a county health department official as severe violators. Both gave assurances that violations would cease, according to George Powell, land use plan supervisor.

Many-Sided Activities at Alondra Pool

Attendance at Alondra Park pool was considerably higher this year than last year.

Alondra Park swimming pool has had a busy and successful season so far, according to Roger Caukin, pool director.

The total number of swimmers at the pool from May 29 to August 1 comes to 111,567.

A total of 6,654 have received swimming lessons.

Swimming Cards
The following swimming cards have been awarded: 90 Red Cross beginners cards; 27 Red Cross swimming cards; 148 Los Angeles beginners cards.

The response has been so heavy said Caukin, that the pool plans to continue its instruction activities till school starts.

Competitive Season
The competitive season with other pools was over last week, Thursday. A Torrance girl, Judy Elkie, swam away with the second place prize in the 50 meter girls' breast stroke race. The final contest was held at Arcadia.

At present, the pool plans to enter an act in the Water Ballet to be held at Arcadia August 14 and at Palmdale August 22.

There were 161 rescues for the season and 169 First Aid cases serious enough to be recorded, Caukin stated.
